100-Hectares Douro Wines

The history of the 100-HECTARES wines begins in the early 70's, when Brás and Cigarro family – which has an enormous passion for the Douro region – makes major investments in the purchase and renovation of properties located in Douro – Baixo Corgo sub-region. The estates of the family are the origin of their wines, and the production is made exclusively from grapes coming from their properties, which is at the heart of the family's production philosophy. The duty of passing the legacy from generation to generation is a feeling rooted in the family.

Pera Manca

Cartuxa's Pêra-Manca Tinto, which Vivino's 54 million users last year voted the best wine in the world, is a truly legendary Portuguese wine. Dating back to the Sixteenth Century, owned by a non-profit making foundation, vinified in a monastery and only made three times a decade, it is rare, expensive and completely unique. In a rare tasting event Peter Dean sampled six vintages from the past two decades and discovered from Cartuxa winemaker Pedro Baptista the thinking that goes into this masterpiece of winemaking.

VILA DAS RAINHAS

Ginja d' Óbidos

As a pioneering company in the production of the genuine Óbidos Sour Cherry Liqueur, we are proud of our roots and the loyalty we maintain to the original formula, from which we seek to innovate and diversify, offering our consumers the highest standards in food quality and safety. Adding value to the product, through a handmade and traditional production, Frutóbidos invests in the continuous improvement of the quality and safety of its production processes as well as the satisfaction of its consumers. The Vila das Rainhas® Ginja d'Óbidos sour cherry liqueur thus reaches a new level, enjoyed by the whole world, providing rare and unforgettable moments of pleasure.

Vila Das Rainhas Ginja d' Óbidos Sour Cherry Liqueur

The secret behind the Vila das Rainhas® Ginja d'Óbidos Sour Cherry Liqueur starts in the orchard, where the fruit is produced and picked. After a thorough selection, the sour cherries are placed in an alcohol infusion. After a prolonged resting period, the fruit is duly prepared to be later mixed with the sugar syrup.

The success of the Vila das Rainhas® Ginja d'Óbidos is in the essence of the handmade production, without any colourings or flavourings, obtaining a ruby-coloured nectar with a velvety flavour, which should be consumed at a temperature of between 14°C and 15°C.

New From Casa Redondo

“When the Little Prince of Saint-Exupéry meets the fox, it teaches him that for two people to get along, they have to be captivated. And that, to captivate, means to “create bonds”.

A raposa do principezinho de Saint-Exupéry.

That, even if people only know each other for a brief moment, from the moment they are captivated, they stay together forever. The fox of The Little Prince will always remember him when it sees the color of wheat, because it'll remind it of the yellow of his hair.

This story was the inspiration for Foxtale Gin: more than a drink, it's a hymn to friendship that is the ideal digestive for a night with friends. Friends who, when they see Foxtale, will always remember each other, wherever they are.

Foxtale Dry, Pink, Citrus Gin

Foxtale Gin is produced with 100% national production, made with some of the best ingredients produced in Portugal - strawberries from the Alentejo and oranges from the Algarve - The Foxtale is the perfect gin to share at any time and thus create many stories... What's Your Tale?

We are all made up of stories. And for each personality, there is a flavor of The Foxtale: the storytelling gin that promotes the sharing of experiences between each of us. All this through a “Gin-Gin”.

New Selections from the Azores Islands

From the Azores Islands, Portugal, we proudly offer you these two great products produced from natural ingredients.

Rocha Negra (Black Rock) Azores Gin

Rocha Negra Gin is made up of nine botanical species that grow in the Azores. Between citrus fruits and aromatic plants, it was developed with the aim of creating a high quality product. Basalt is a rock of volcanic origin that lends its name to the first premium gin distilled in the Azores. Made from botanical species that grow by the sea, next to basalt stones, Rocha Negra gin gives sensations that remind us of the proximity of the sea that surrounds the islands of this archipelago.
